Making the Loop

Tie a loop in a 1/8" wide x 6" long ribbon as show in Figure 2.

Cutting the Batting

Lay one of the hexagon wreaths on to some batting. Trace on the batting around the outside and inside of the wreath as show in Figure 3. Cut the batting on the inside of the tracing marks, so it will be a bit smaller.

Closing the Ornament

Remove the twelve paper pieces from the two wreaths. Save your paper pieces to reuse. Iron the wreaths to set the seams.

Lay the batting between the two hexagon wreaths and pin in place. See Figure 4. Whip stitch all around the out side pushing in the batting as you go. Do not forget to capture the knot of the loop, along one edge. Whips stitch around the inside.

Finishing Touch

Quilt in the valley of the six seams as show in Figure 5.

Take a piece of 1/4" wide x 6" long ribbon and tie a cute bow. Attach the bow on the front of the wreath as shown in Figure 6.
